

Setting a Map by Landmarks

1) Draw a line on the map between your present position (A) and a landmark on the map which can also be seen on the ground.

2) Rotate the map until the pencil line points at the landmark.

3) The map is now set but not so accurately as if a compass were used.

For greater accuracy use this method with two landmarks.