

The Preparation and Planning of Instruction

The importance of planning cannot be too strongly emphasized.

When preparing a lesson the instructor must take into account the following factors:

Objective of the lesson to be taught

Time available

His own knowledge

Knowledge and intelligence of the class

Medium of instruction to be used

Size of class

Stores required and availability

Place where instruction is to take place

Preparation of rooms. area. kit. etc