

Scenario 1

You stumble across a road traffic accident at Highcroft Bridge next to the lemon tree public house. There are four teenage male casualties in the first car all of which seem fine, in the other car there is a pregnant women who has strong pains in her stomach and a 6 year old girl who seems very pale and isn't saying much.

Scenario 2

You're walking down Ladbrokes lane when you see smoke coming from the third story window of the clean cut metal works factory. As it's the weekend it seems there is no one working today.

Scenario 3

Upon entering the local news agents, Fred's news you find the shop keeper covered in blood and unconches behind the counter. The news agents is on the road junction joining Sussex road and Downview Street.

Scenario 4

While sitting on Brighton beach you see a small green ship about a mile out to sea with large amounts of black smoke coming from it. Its heading seems to be the eastside of the west pier.

Scenario 5

While out shopping a small girl approaches you out side Virgin Mega Store and says that she can't find her mother.

Scenario 6

While walking in the woods you come across a vehicle that has crashed into a tree on a sharp road bend. Inside the car seems to be a young couple both unconscious and the rear door wide open. In the back window is a 'young person on board' sign.

Scenario 7

While walking down Brighton high street you glance into Barclays bank window and see a masked man waving a hand gun at the cashier. You can see 5 customers and 2 cashiers from your vantage point at the window.

Scenario 8

you wake up to hear shouting coming from next door, you go outside to see next doors house on fire the mother is no where to be seen but the two children Charlie and Sam are crying and shouting from the upstairs window.

Scenario 9

you are walking along the beach late on a Sunday afternoon, after walking past 'fisherman Pete's cafe' you see a person struggling to stay afloat about 500 meters out to sea.

Scenario 10

Walking into the kitchen you see your mother laying on the ground, she seems to be unconscious. You look round the room, a knife lays on the floor next to her, an empty bottle of vodka is on the side and an electric whisk is in the sink still plugged in.

Scenario 11

You wake up late at night to hear whispering and noises coming from downstairs, at first you think it's your parents coming in from the pub again but you then remember your parents are on holiday and shouldn't be back for two days.

Scenario 12

While sitting in the 'Willow Tree' kiddie's park you hear a load screech followed by a thud. As you turn round you see a black BMW speeding off and an old lady lying at the side of the road. You quickly look back at the car but you can only make out the first two letters of the number plate 'GU'.

Scenario 13

While having a meal with your family your mother jumps up and starts frantically pointing at her open mouth and gripping he throat with her hands.

Scenario 14

A little old lady stops you as your walking down western road and explains her cat is stuck in the big tree.

Scenario 15

A small girl stops you and asks you to get her ball from the 'scary mans house' as her and her friend kicked it into his garden. While talking to her the man appears from his house holding a shot gun and swearing at the girl.

Scenario 16

While walking in the country you find a dog tied to a gate. You look round and can't see anybody for miles.

Scenario 17

While walking on an expedition you see smoke coming from a large group of trees in the distance. You look at your map and the grid reference of the wood is 567/239.

Scenario 18

You and your father are watching football. It's the FA cup final and Arsenal (who you both support) is drawing with Westham in the 89th minute Arsenal scores the winning goal. Your father screams and shouts with pride then hits the floor holding his chest and crying out in pain.

Scenario 19

You're leaving the detachment and find a bag lying on the floor; you look in side and see that there is loads of nails and bolts.

Scenario 20

While walking along a cliff you hear shouting coming from the edge. You walk over and look over the edge. You can't see anyone but you answer their call and they tell you they fell and are stuck on ledge about 50 meters from the sea.